

GLAXOSMITHKLINE CHILD HEALTH RECOGNITION

AWARDS PROGRAM 2010

GLAXOSMITHKLINE CHILD HEALTH RECOGNITION AWARDS PROGRAM

GlaxoSmithKline – one of the world’s leading research-based pharmaceutical and healthcare companies – is committed to improving the quality of human life by enabling people to do more, feel better and live longer. As part of this corporate commitment, GlaxoSmithKline takes an active role in supporting community efforts in the areas of health and human services, education, civic activities and the arts.

GlaxoSmithKline has established the GlaxoSmithKline Child Health Recognition Awards program to encourage the development of creative and successful approaches to improve the health status of children and to honor those who contribute to improving the quality of life of children. Awards are presented at the 2010 North Carolina Public Health Association’s annual meeting.

NOMINATION PROCEDURE

Nominations for the GlaxoSmithKline Child Health Recognition Awards Program may be made by anyone who has sufficient knowledge about the individual’s activities or local health department’s services. Nominations are evaluated by a selection committee made up of health care professionals. Each year the awards program focuses on a specific area of child health services delivery. In 2010, the focus will be on outstanding collaborative programs that affect the health of children in all nomination categories. The selection committee will make its decisions after considering how well nominees:

- assessed their community’s needs
- obtained measurable results
- efficiently used resources
- used innovative approaches
- collaborated with others
- improved access to services

Awards will be made in four categories:

The Lifetime Achievement Award will be given to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to improving children’s health services through a series of achievements over a period of time. The award will consist of a monetary grant of up to $2,000 to be given to the state public health association for scholarship in the name of the award recipient.

The Individual Recognition Award will be given to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to improving children’s health services through a single effort. The award will consist of a monetary grant of up to $2,000 to be given to the state public health association for scholarship in the name of the award recipient.

The Local Health Department Recognition Award will recognize local health departments that have developed an innovative program that has produced measurable, sustainable outcomes. All local health departments, as defined by NCGS 130A-2(5) are eligible for consideration. Up to three local health departments will receive awards consisting of monetary grants of up to $5,000 to be used by the grantees for activities such as special projects, staff development or educational materials.

The Public Health Staff Recognition Award will be given to individuals who are either full-time or part-time employees or retirees of local health departments in recognition of outstanding service in preventive health activities in their local communities. Awards will be made consisting of monetary grants of up to $1000, to be used by the grantees for activities such as special projects, personal development or educational materials.
