

GSK IMPACT Grants support groups of nonprofit organizations working collectively to improve the infrastructure of a community and make individuals – especially young people – healthier

